Greenburgh Nature Center Holds Fall Celebration

The Greenburgh Nature Center will honor Westchester County Legislator Tom Abinanti and recognize other members of Westchester County's Committee on Environment and Energy for their development of Westchester County's "No Idling" Legislation, at their "Green Magic Party" at the Nature Center on Sunday, October 4th, from 4 to 6:30 p.m.

Meredith Vieira, co-host of the Today Show, will be the honorary chairperson of the event. Also to be honored is the Mini USA Corporation, for development of their Electric Car Pilot Program.

For further information on tickets and sponsorship opportunities, please contact GNC Executive Director Kurt Hundgen at 914-813-1837 or at khundgen@greenburghnaturecenter.org.

The Greenburgh Nature Center is a not-for-profit corporation that operates programs and exhibits on a 33-acre "oasis of greenspace" that is part of the Town of Greenburgh's park system. The Center is located on Dromore Road, just off Central Avenue in Scarsdale, NY. Grounds are open daily from dawn to dusk throughout the year. Indoor exhibits are open daily except Fridays and a few holidays from 9:30 to 4:30 on weekdays and 10:00 to 4:30 on weekends. Parking is free, and handicapped parking is available. For further information, call (914) 723-3470 or visit the website www.greenburghnaturecenter.org.
