Inspiration in Nature
AAUW Active Artists Group

October 10 – December 1, 2009

Fifteen artists from the Westchester branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) present a multi-media art exhibit, including photography, acrylic, watercolor, oil, paint on silk, and chalk and pastel.

The AAUW's mission is to advance equity for women and girls through advocacy, education and research. The Westchester branch supports an “active artists” interest group, which meets monthly to work on current artistic projects.
